

Media Advisory

CONTACT: Fred deSousa, 505-665-3430 or 505-500-5672, fdesousa@lanl.gov
PHOTOS AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST

LANL Sponsors Job Fair for Recovery Act Work Jobs and opportunities for Northern New Mexico

LOS ALAMOS, New Mexico, October 23, 2009—On Thursday, October 29, Los Alamos National Laboratory will sponsor a job fair for people interested in employment with the Lab's environmental cleanup subcontractors and other firms that support Lab work. Much of the work is being funded by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act.

The job fair will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Ohkay Conference Center at the Ohkay Casino Resort Hotel north of Española.

Nine companies and the New Mexico Workforce Connection will accept résumés for positions from entry-level field technicians and laborers to radiological control technicians and project managers. Officials will be available for reporter interviews.

WHO: LANL, nine other companies, and the New Mexico Workforce Connection

WHAT: Job fair

WHEN: Thursday, October 29, 2009 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

WHERE: Ohkay Conference Center, two miles north of Española on Highway 68.

WHY: LANL is committed to jobs, economic opportunity, and environmental stewardship in Northern New Mexico.

- more -

About Los Alamos National Laboratory (www.lanl.gov)

Los Alamos National Laboratory, a multidisciplinary research institution engaged in strategic science on behalf of national security, is operated by Los Alamos National Security, LLC, a team composed of Bechtel National, the University of California, The Babcock & Wilcox Company, and the Washington Division of URS for the Department of Energy's National Nuclear Security Administration.

Los Alamos enhances national security by ensuring the safety and reliability of the U.S. nuclear stockpile, developing technologies to reduce threats from weapons of mass destruction, and solving problems related to energy, environment, infrastructure, health, and global security concerns.